BRONX, NY (FEBRUARY 21, 2017) –WALLWORKS NEW YORK is proud to announce our next exhibition of the year, a solo exhibition of TAT CRU member and artist BG183.

His first solo exhibition here at WALLWORKS NEW YORK is an exploration of the culture of The Bronx and neighborhood identity. Filled with silhouettes of New York City and fire escapes are joined by images of trains and fire hydrants, all of which are incredibly nostalgic and memorable for the viewer.

Using bright colors and his animated graffiti style, BG183's exhibition is a perfect representation of his artistic style. From large canvas work to more personal and intimate canvases, "The Wall" promises to be an exploration of just what belongs on a wall—from trains to murals to fine art.
