OLGA CORREA SOLO EXHIBITION STARTS OFF THE WALLWORKS NEW YORK 2026 SEASON

Bronx, NY — WALLWORKS NEW YORK is proud to present a solo exhibition of new work by Olga Correa, opening February 21, 2026 and on view through March 20, 2026. This exhibition marks Correa's latest body of work and continues her exploration of femininity in Graffiti.

In this new series, Correa expands her visual language through her brightly colored self-portrait character in various moods and styles. Her work reflects an ongoing investigation into inserting herself into the art, inviting viewers into a space that is both intimate and expansive.

The exhibition will open with a public reception on February 21, 2026 from 6PM - 8PM. Guests will have the opportunity to experience the work firsthand and engage with the artist.

Olga Correa's practice has been recognized for its ties to the feminine figure in the often male-dominated Graffiti and Street Art scene. This exhibition highlights her continued evolution and her commitment to pushing conceptual boundaries.

WALLWORKS NEW YORK remains committed to presenting dynamic contemporary artists whose work reflects the energy and diversity of New York and beyond.
