BRONX, NEW YORK (MAY 17, 2018) – WALLWORKS NEW YORK is proud to announce our next exhibition of gallery artist Claudia MadC Walde. Rush Hour marks her return to New York and her second solo exhibition in the gallery space.

MadC has become recognized world wide through her abstracted use of color and form. Rush Hour, inspired by the hustle and bustle of New York, takes her style a step further. Experimenting with new colors, materials and technique, these mid-size works feel weighted and monumental while still retaining a lightness and playfulness most artists are not able to achieve. They invite the viewer in to find her MadC name in each work, but still accessible to anyone who is a fan of the European graffiti scene.

ABOUT MADC

Claudia MadC Walde is a graffiti artist from Germany who is known for her large scale outdoor artistic works. She holds degrees in Graphic Design from the University of Art and Design, Halle and Central Saint Martin's College, London. Valuable experiences from the world of academic life were preceded by an active rapport with the Graffiti and Street Art phenomena when she was only a teen. Having produced books and numerous installations and murals, MadC continues to push the conversation of the culture surrounding Graffiti and Street Art and where it can go.
